Rate Information: The annual percentage yield (APY) reflects the total amount of dividends to be paid on an account, based on the annual percentage rate (APR) and the frequency of compounding for an annual period. The APY is based on an assumption that dividends will remain on deposit until maturity. A withdrawal of dividends will reduce earnings. The APR for each CD term is set by the Credit Union's Board of Directors and may change at any time. Rate changes will apply to new CD accounts and will apply to existing CD accounts at renewal.

Nature of Dividends: Dividends are paid from current income and available earnings after required transfers to reserves at the end of the dividend period.

Dividend Compounding and Crediting: The compounding and crediting of dividends applicable to each account is listed above by term and type.

Dividend Calculation: Dividends are calculated by the average daily balance method which applies a periodic rate to the average daily balance in the account for the period. The average daily balance is calculated by adding the balance in the account for each day of the period and dividing that figure by the number of days in the period.

Accrual of Dividends: Dividends will begin to accrue on the business day you make the deposit to your account.

Transaction Limitations: After the Certificate of Deposit is opened, the ability to make additional deposits and/or withdrawals is limited. The limitations on such transactions are set forth above for each CD term.

Maturity: Your account will mature as indicated in this Certificate of Deposit Disclosure or on your Account Receipt or Renewal Notice.

Early Withdrawal Penalty: We may impose a penalty if you withdraw any of the principal before the maturity date.

Amount of Penalty: The amount of the early withdrawal penalty is 90 days dividends for CDs with terms less than 12 months. For CDs with terms of 12 through 24 months the early withdrawal penalty is 180 days dividends. For CDs with terms greater than 24 months the early withdrawal penalty is 365 days dividends.

How the Penalty Works: The penalty is calculated as a forfeiture of part of the dividends that have been or would be earned on the account. It applies whether or not the dividends have been earned. In other words, if the account has not yet earned enough dividends or if the dividend has already been paid, the penalty will be deducted from the principal.

Exceptions to Early Withdrawal Penalties: At our option, we may allow early withdrawals before maturity without imposing an early withdrawal penalty under the following circumstances:

- 1) When an account owner dies or is determined legally incompetent by a court or other body of legal jurisdiction.
- 2) Where the account is an Individual Retirement Account (IRA) and any portion is withdrawn within seven (7) days after establishment; or where the account is an IRA and the owner is required to take mandatory distributions per IRA rules.

Renewal Policy: The renewal policy for each CD term is indicated in this Certificate of Deposit Disclosure. You have a grace period of (7) days after maturity in which to withdraw funds in the account without being charged an early withdrawal penalty.

Non-transferable/Non-negotiable: Your account is non-transferable and non-negotiable. The funds in your account may not be pledged to secure any obligation of an owner, except obligations with the Credit Union.

*The Checking Account balance is your average daily balance for the month. The average daily balance is calculated by adding together the balance for each day and dividing by the number of days in the month.

APY=Annual Percentage Yield. This additional rate is added to the regular Money Market rate. For example: 0.50% APY plus an additional 0.25% APY for a total of 0.75% APY. 0.50% APY plus an additional 0.50% APY for a total of 1.00% APY. 0.50% APY plus an additional 0.75% APY for a total of 1.25% APY.
